Every day, every moment is a celebration!

Life gives us many gifts and we should relish them all, explore them and celebrate them. Every day is a celebration of life and every day brings in a new dawn. We might gain or lose something as days go by but we must never lose our wisdom.

“The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful, honorable, compassionate, and to make a difference.” – Ralph Waldo Emerson

At Khalsa all the activities are designed such that every moment becomes a celebration. Students and staff enthusiastic participation creates an environment of happiness, joy, and good hopes that fills all of us with positive energy. Celebrating life is a powerful way to find solace, inspiration, and gratitude.
