E-Bulletin for the month of September-October 2023

SENIOR SECTION

From the desk of our Respected Principal Ma'am ...

Life is a Festival

Life is a celebration of happy moments. It is an attitude that brings out the charm and excitement in people. It's an opportunity to appreciate the positive side of life with joy and gratitude.

We live in a country where people celebrate many festivals. These festivals keep us connected to our roots, our values, our culture, and our origin. But they indubitably serve as reasons for bringing the family and friends together. At Khalsa all the festivals are celebrated with such fervour that an environment of happiness, joy, and good hopes fills all of us with positive energy. And to celebrate the very spirit of humankind, I believe that our entire life is a festival.

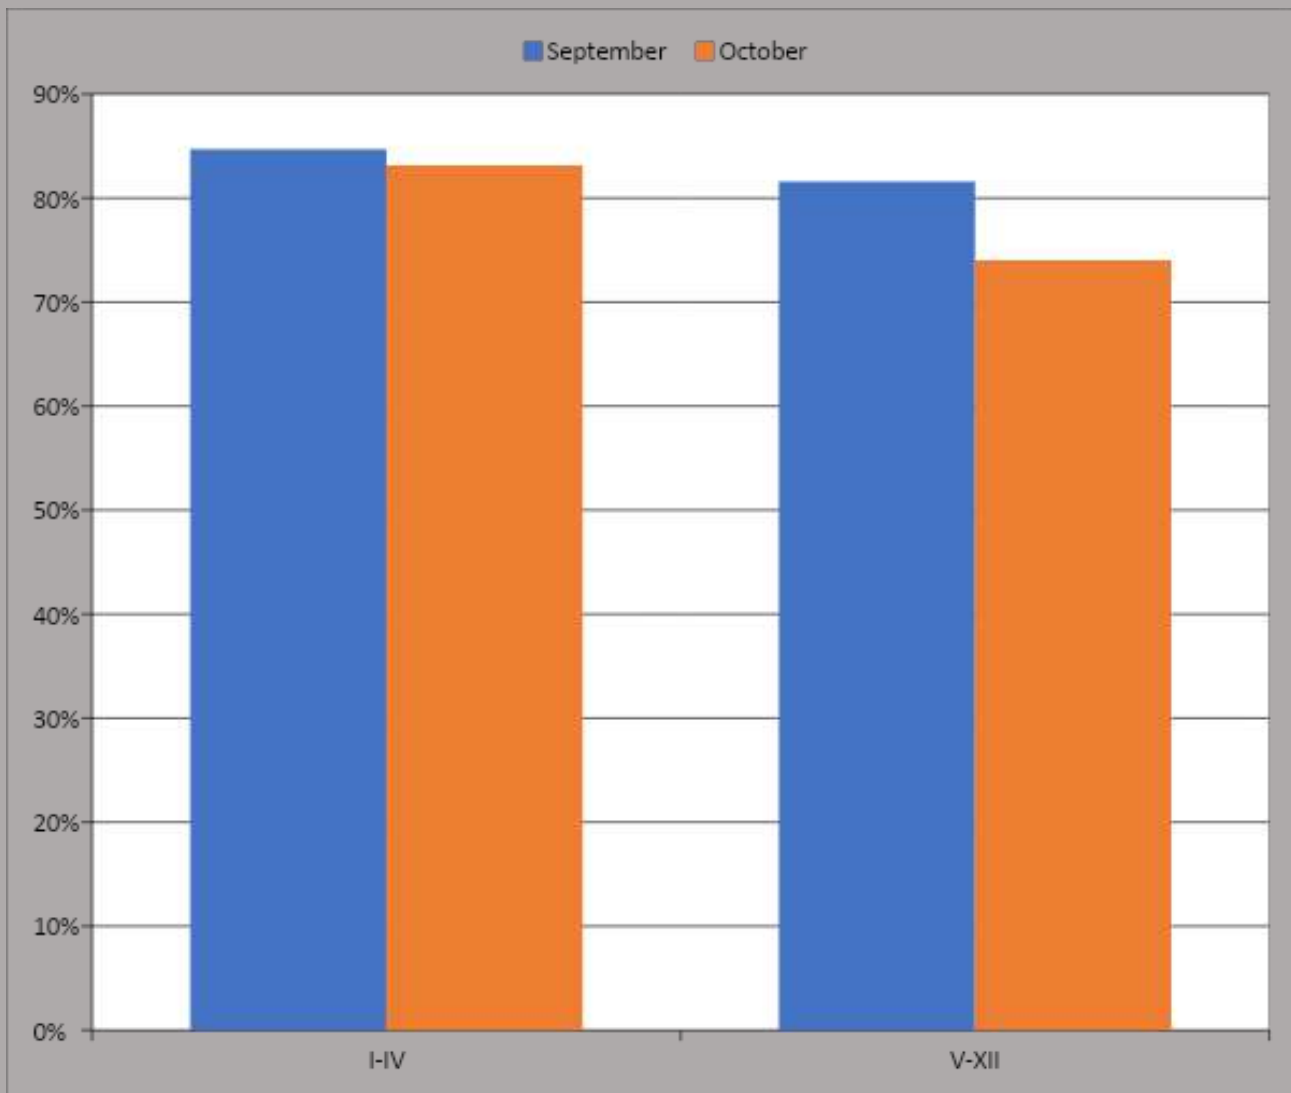

Therefore, I wish all of you tremendous success and happiness at every step in life with good faith. I pray for you to live life to the fullest and rejoice in the beauty of our festivals and culture, spreading a feeling of love, harmony, brotherhood, and respect.

- Dr. Gurmeet Kaur Arjani

Summary of the Events Held

September marks the beginning of autumn in the Northern hemisphere. It is the 9th month of the Gregorian calendar. After September comes the 10th month of the year that is, October. We experience autumn in this month also and it marks a series of festivals and celebrations and activities to respect and honour each and every culture to its fullest strength. Like every year we celebrate these two months in a gorgeous and pompous way. The students, teachers under the patronage of our revered Principal Ma'am in KMSSS celebrate the duo months in a diverse way. This creates a velvety stream of sheer delight, so that everywhere the festive spirit creates a copious aura. We, as the E bulletin team create a journey into the world of celebrations so that we could display and celebrate the creativity and culture for building emotional resilience and a strong bond of relationship among us. This is possible for the initiative taken by our respected Principal Ma'am to inculcate in us the emotional wellbeing.

The winning team — Interact Club of Galaxy School, Rajkot.

Below: Interact Club of Fireflies, Pakistan.

The keynote speaker for the event was Spansh Shah, an American rapper who has overcome a rare disorder, Osteogenesis Imperfecta. He motivated the interactors to embrace their unique talent and contributions. "Stick to your vision, because what you can bring to the table, nobody else can," he said.

The Interact Club of Galaxy School, Wadi in Rajkot, India, won the competition and the Interact Clubs of Vaskha Vidyalaya (Colombo, Sri Lanka), Fireflies (Lahore, Pakistan), Valmiki (Narayanganj, Nepal) and Khalsa (Kolkata, India) were the runners-up. The awards will be conferred to the winners.

The quiz was hosted by Aliya T Sayed from RID 3272, Islamabad, Pakistan, and Zeaul Huda Hernal, district secretary, RID 3281. The event was supported by D Raja Cotton in Kadi, Gujarat, and Rotarians Sanjay Dalal, Mahendra Patel, Parvish Patel and Punita Mehta from Ahmedabad. ■

R C Ahmedabad Greater, RID 3055, recently organised the Transnational Quiz on Zoom with an aim to foster international peace and promote collaboration between Rotary and Interact clubs across Asia. Thirty-six teams participated in the programme, "representing a diverse array of countries and regions," said host club president Anup Sinha. There were four teams from Nepal-Bhutan, three from Bangladesh, seven from Pakistan, four teams representing Sri Lanka and the Maldives, and 18 teams representing India. "This international turnout demonstrated the wide-reaching impact of the quiz in bringing together young leaders from different backgrounds and fostering cooperation and friendly competition."

PRIP Shekhar Mehta delivered an inspirational message to the participants. "Even great leaders like Abraham Lincoln faced failures before achieving greatness. View failures as opportunities for growth and resilience," he said.

RID Anirudha Roychowdhury advised the children to take advantage of the privileges offered by Interact clubs. "Have fun and enjoy your time in Interact. Building strong friendships and camaraderie is part of this experience. Understand that even small actions can have a significant impact in your community and the world. Your efforts matter," he said.

Teachers tend to ignore their stress and anxiety levels in lieu of their unconditional love for education and teaching children. But the gratification from teaching can sometimes come with pressure and performance management that's always looming in a teacher's mind.

It is important that we remember that teachers are indispensable in our entire education system and so is their mental health and well-being.

Mental health is a state of mental well-being that enables people to cope with the stresses of life, realize their abilities, learn well and work well, and contribute to their community. It is an integral component of health and well-being that underpins our individual and collective abilities to make decisions, build relationships and shape the world

Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav” – Week III

The second week of 'Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav' began with the announcement of the theme, "Cuisines of India". On which, a short English speech was prepared by our host of the special assembly in which she told us about the food and pulses of India. Following was a short Hindi speech on the same by our other host, which explained how different kinds of pulses grow all over India..

The first state was Kashmir, from where came the famous "Kashmiri Rajma". The student, dressed in Kashmiri attire, entered the centre stage, and detailed its process of preparation and benefits.

The second state was Punjab, from where came the famous "Dal Makhani" which was said to be eaten by people, not only from Punjab, but all over India.

The third state was Uttar Pradesh, from where came "Toor Dal", a source of fibre and proteins whose regular intake is said to reduce blood sugar levels.

From Bihar came the "Masur Dal", a famous dal which reduces the risk of diabetes.

From West Bengal, came the Bengali's favourite, "Chana (Cholar) Dal", filled with high proteins and best with puris.

And finally, from Odisha, we heard the process of preparation of "Moong Dal", one of the most flavourful pulses of India.

The entire performance ended with another ending speech on the importance of eating pulses by both our hosts and why they hold such an importance in our lives. The audience was thrilled to see too many delicacies in front of their eyes in the live assembly. All were excited to return home and try on a new fibre-full pulse grown in the soil of our dear country.

Durga Puja is one of the biggest and most popular festival of India. It involves the ritual of worship of our Goddess Durga and the triumph of the Goddess Durga over the demon Mahishasura. The festival honours the indomitable female force in the form of 'Shakti'. This day gives everyone a reason to celebrate; it's an occasion for rejuvenation and reunion and a celebration of our customary culture and customs.
